The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Jacksonville District will host a telephone news conference on Fri., Feb. 2 at 11:30 a.m. to discuss Herbert Hoover Dike as it relates to the national levee safety program. Herbert Hoover Dike is the only levee in Florida that was included on the Corps' "Levees of Maintenance Concern" list, issued by Corps headquarters on Thurs., Feb. 1.

Representatives from Jacksonville District will discuss the current status of Herbert Hoover Dike and the Major Rehabilitation Project already under way.

Media representatives who plan to participate in the news conference should notify Susan Jackson of the Corps' Corporate Communication Office at 904-232-1953 by 10:30 a.m. so that a sufficient number of telephone lines are made available.
